"Thinking about how much writing I do on a daily basis, I really learned a lot more about the structure of the English language through my study of Norwegian. That, coupled with the requirements of other courses in the major, made me a much better writer and communicator."

Gage Trader, 2007

Director of Operations, Intercrown Enterprise, LTD
Madison, WI

"I have been asked about my interest in Scandinavian Studies in every job interview since graduation. Being able to connect with people on an interesting and uncommon topic has been invaluable. On more than one occasion, I've been offered a job and informed after the fact my Scandinavian Studies background was an added bonus with my candidacy."

Chelsea-Leigh Flucus, 2013

PSJD Fellow, National Association for Law Placement
Washington, DC
