

Register Today for the Future of Work Institute™!

Earn a new credential designed to prepare the University of Wisconsin-Madison students for your career journeys

CREDENTIAL OVERVIEW

2 - Day Bootcamp

(live sessions)

+

2 supplementary activities

(including an In-person networking session with Deloitte alums)

+

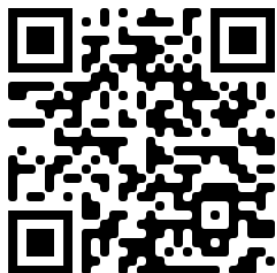

1 Graduation

(live session)

IMPORTANT DATES

January 19th and 20th

See Registration Below!

Powered by a partnership with Deloitte, the Future of Work Institute™ will help prepare students to navigate future careers and be leaders in our rapidly changing world.

The Institute credential includes a two-day bootcamp to develop a common foundation for what the Future of Work (FoW) means, including supplementary activities to apply knowledge, network with alumni and gain professional exposure, and a final ceremony to reflect upon the experience, earning a Deloitte credential.

VALUE TO YOU

- ✓ Understand your role in the FoW and equip yourself with a competitive advantage to discuss and innovate in the work, workforce, and workplace of the future
- ✓ Learn skills to navigate the future workforce and refresh your skills for new career opportunities
- ✓ Connect with Institute peers and expand your professional network with other higher education institutions nationwide as you begin or continue your career
- ✓ Become a forward thinker with the skills required to navigate future organizations you will join

Ready to Learn More?

- To learn how to register for the FoW Institute, please reach out to Emily Pomykalski at emily.pomykalski@wisc.edu
- Read more about Deloitte and the FoW here: <http://bitly.ws/fEWK>
- Questions? Please reach out to The Future of Work Institute™ at fowi@deloitte.com

*Receipt of the Deloitte credential requires students to attend all live sessions